

Year Three Hinduism Presentation

Gods and Goddesses

Vishnu

Brahma

Lakshmi

We learned that Hindu's believe in many Gods and Goddesses but that the main God takes many forms. Some well known Gods and Goddesses are Lord Vishnu, King of the Gods, Brahma, his servant, who is God of creation, and Lakshmi, who is the Goddess of wealth.

The story of Rama and Sita.

Hindu's celebrate many festivals, but the most important is Diwali. This is sometimes called the festival of light, and our play about Rama and Sita will explain why.

Diwali

Diya Lamps

Some Hindu's light fireworks.

Rangoli Patterns

Aum

Hindu's put Rangoli patterns on the ground outside of their house at the time of Diwali, to welcome the gods.

Drawing our own Rangoli Patterns.

We used mirrors to help us.

The Mandir

We visited a Mandir, which is a Hindu Temple. We took part in an Aarti Ceremony, which is like a prayer service.

Mrs Gupta's Visit

We were really lucky to have Mrs Gupta, who is a Hindu, come into our class to visit.

Thank you for watching our presentation.
