

Children in Year 2 wrote instructions as a group so that they could programme the Beebot. We wanted to move the Beebot from a body part to a sense. We then read the instructions and put them into the Beebot. We checked to see if the instructions were correct.

